MEMORANDUM FOR: Employees Activities Branch

SUBJECT : Galley Proofs of Proposed Book on Sources of Information for Federal Investigators

1. Your Office has been furnished with the first 105 pages of galley proofs of a book written by the undersigned on sources of information for federal investigators. This book was prepared under a Federal Executive Fellowship granted by the Brookings Institution. The book will be distributed to all departments and agencies of the Federal Government that have investigative units. It will be classified confidential and a record will be maintained on the distribution of all copies.

2. Printing Services Division has advised that they will have the remainder of the galley proofs on or before 18 November. As soon as they are received a copy will be forwarded to your Office.
